

Betty Meeks, Employee Services Manager

Betty Meeks is a career employee of Orange County Government. She started in 1975. Through the years she has progressed from a Program Monitor to her current position of Human Resources Manager.

In 1995 Betty joined the Convention Center as Staffing and Development Supervisor responsible for providing recruitment and training for Convention Center employees. In 2000 Betty was promoted to Human Resources Manager, responsible for the human resources and training functions.

Ms. Meeks is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management and holds a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) Certificate. She is also a member of the Central Florida Human Resources Association.

Betty has a B.S. degree in Business Administration from Bethune-Cookman College, and a Masters degree in Public Administration from the University of Central Florida. She is a graduate of Orange County Leadership Institute and a graduate of the Public Assembly Facility Management School.