

Fred Baker, Facility Operations Manager

Fred Baker has been a member of the Orange County Convention Center for twelve years. He currently serves as the Director of Facility Operations where he directs the facility maintenance, heating, ventilation and air conditioning, warehouse and building services sections.

Fred also manages the capital improvement program for the Center. Prior to assuming his Manager role, Fred held positions as technician and supervisor in the Facility Maintenance Section.