

Greg Forehand, Security Manager

Grayling “Greg” Forehand is a retired U.S. Army Military Police Officer and has served in a myriad of increasingly challenging assignments around the world including Platoon Leader, Company Commander, Deputy Chief of Police, Chief of Police Operations Officer and Criminal Investigation Division Supervisor.

In 1995, Greg began his second career with the Orange County Convention Center (OCCC) as the Assistant Building Security Supervisor and was promoted to Building Security Supervisor in 1997. In 2001, Greg was appointed to the position of Security Manager. He is responsible for the overall management and implementation of all phases of counter-terrorism programs, security initiatives and the safety and strategic administration of transportation objectives. Mr. Forehand is active in many professional organizations including the International Association of Assembly Managers (IAAM), American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS), International Organization of Black Security Executives (IOBSE) and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and the Central Florida Hotel Lodging Association (CFLHA) Security Council.

Since moving to Orlando in 1995, Greg has devoted time to numerous activities including the United Way Leadership Club, Avalon Pop Warner Football, the YMCA Black Achievers Program, Oak Ridge High School Magnet Program and Strengthening Our Sons (SOS) Mentoring Organization.

In 1998, Greg initiated and developed the annual OCCC golf tournament that has raised over $100,000 for various local charitable organizations.

Greg is a graduate from Lincoln University and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. Additionally, he has completed the requirements for the Orange County Leadership Institute and the IAAM Public Assembly Facility Management School.
